

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force its stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear violation of their obligation to serve the public interest with balanced programming that is not blatantly partisan.

Furthermore, the fact that Sinclair controls such a large segment of the TV market and is forcing its stations to broadcast political propaganda is particularly obnoxious. I hope the FCC will take a good look at Sinclairs behavior when its license is up for renewal.